

I feel very worried when I hear about Sinclair Broadcasting's decision to force their stations to air an anti-Kerry documentary. My need for fairness is not being met. Would you please let me know if you will tell Sinclair that they must also air a pro-Kerry documentary if they continue with their plan?

Sinclair uses the public airwaves free of charge, and is obligated by law to serve the public interest. But when large companies control the airwaves, we get more of what's good for their bottom line and less of what we need for our democracy. Instead of something produced at "News Central" far away, it's more important that we see real people from our own communities and more substantive news about issues that matter.

Sinclair's actions show why we need to strengthen media ownership rules, not weaken them. They show why the license renewal process needs to involve more than a returned postcard. Thank you.
